

THEORY OF CHANGE

CURRENT SITUATION

Young people live in segregated communities

Hout Bay is far from opportunities and transport is costly & takes time

Public schools offer limited extra-curricular opportunities

Opportunities available are unaffordable

OUTPUTS/ACTIVITIES

An enjoyable environment where young people are encouraged to express and be themselves

Regular weekly dance, circus, art, music sessions

Regular skills development and educational activities

Holiday programmes

Outings

INTERMEDIATE OUTCOMES

Expose young people to different art and recreational forms

Give young people experience of interacting with each other in a positive and safe space

Expose young people to history of South African struggle for freedom

Expand young people's skills and knowledge

Engage young people in activities with others of different race, class, etc

Expose young people to different South African cultures

IMPACT

Local young people dream, grow and enrich their lives in a free and integrated South Africa
